Reinvest Consultants, real estate investment brokerage, is actively recruiting licensed real estate agents in the State of Ohio.

CINCINNATI -- With the distressed real estate market being as competitive as ever for investors and their agents alike, one Cincinnati Real Estate Brokerage is looking to expand its team to give those who choose to work with them the edge they need to be successful real estate investors and experts. Reinvest Consultants, LLC, a real estate brokerage that specializes in assisting investors with the acquisition and disposition of distressed properties, is looking to utilize its unique business model to increase productivity and expand into other markets.

Having completed approximately 300 investment property related transactions in the last year alone, the company is looking to increase that number substantially in the years to come with the help of expanding its team of experts. Business is booming, the market is competitive and eager candidates willing to put in the time will enjoy a rewarding career and have the edge over others in the industry when they join the Reinvest team.

“We see the potential for real estate investment not only in the Cincinnati market and but beyond. We have the expertise and experience to expand our number of transactions in the coming years. Our sales associates receive the best training and have access to seasoned real estate investors and senior sales associates to become true experts in this field. The earning potential is unlimited for someone willing to put the effort into learning the process,” stated Jack Berning, General Manager of Reinvest.

Reinvest Consultants is looking for motivated team members. Current and former real estate agents, recent college graduates, and even people looking to change careers are who the company is targeting. Those interested in investing in real estate themselves would be ideal candidates as well. They would benefit from not only learning the industry but having access to great investment properties.
